Sir,

With reference to your official memorandum no. 295 of the 31st August 1900, I have the honor to report that the temple at Varkod in the Mysore Taluk is that of Sri Varadarajaswamy, and not Sri Narayanaswamy, and that the said temple is in a dilapidated condition.

The Amildar who has inspected the temple states that some of the stone beams are damaged, the roof is leaky, and the walls in some places have come down.

To restore the -

If the cost of restoration be considered heavy, seeing that there are no funds at the credit of the temple, I would suggest that the repairs be confined to the main temple building. If this suggestion be approved, I shall submit a revised estimate.

The correspondance ending with the Builder's report, dated the 17th September is herewith submitted for perusal.
